Alan –

This is to advise you that I will be filing a Notice of Appearance later today or next week to act as co-counsel with Nick Patouris in this matter.

On a related note, after consulting with our client we agree not to contest the manner by which he was served in Greece.

Based upon our prior e-mails, in view of the foregoing concession our time to Answer the Complaint is now extended to May 17, 2012.

Please confirm your receipt and acknowledgment of this e-mail.

Thanks,

Larry Lebowitz

Larry and Nicholas:

Confirming our conversation today, we agreed to extend the time for defendant to move or answer to May 17, 2012 should the defendant choose to accept service; however, should the defendant choose not to accept service, then we agreed to extend the time to April 17, 2012.

You agreed to let us know on Monday or Tuesday which option you will select.

Thank you.

Mr. Sugarman,

As per our discussion last week, attached is a copy of a Notice of Appearance I filed a few minutes ago on behalf of Nick Patouris indicated that he will be representing Mr. Portalakis. I will also be filing a Notice of Appearance on behalf of Mr. Portalakis to act as trial counsel to Mr. Patouris. In view of the foregoing, would you please call me so we can work out a schedule for the service our Answer, exchange of preliminary discovery materials and any other "housekeeping" matters which need to be addressed.

Thanks,

Larry Lebowitz

Larry

In addition to the proper service on your client to an employee of his company previously, this is to advise you that today the summons and complaint in Greek and English was served directly and personally upon Mr. Portalakis in Athens and he willingly accepted service and signed for service.
